

VILLAGE CHURCH

Presbyterian (USA)

"Imagine yourself as a living house. God comes in to rebuild that house. At first, perhaps, you can understand what God is doing. God is getting the drains right and stopping the leaks in the roof; you knew that those jobs needed doing and so you are not surprised. But presently God starts knocking the house about in a way that hurts abominably and does not seem to make any sense. What on earth is God up to? God is building quite a different house from the one you thought. You thought you were being made into a decent little cottage; but God is building a palace. God intends to come and live in it—to live in you." –C.S. Lewis

*Call to Worship (Psalm 85)

Rev. Alice Whitson

Restore us again, O God of our salvation, and put away your indignation toward us.

Show us your steadfast love, O Lord, and grant us your salvation.

Let us hear what the Lord God will speak to us,
for God will speak peace to God's people,

to God's faithful, to those who turn to God in their hearts.

Surely God's salvation is at hand for those who fear God,
so that God's glory may dwell in our land.

*Hymn 385

All People That on Earth Do Dwell

Prayer of Confession

Almighty God,

you are the Lord God and by your grace, we are your people.

We are here to praise you and glorify you, for you alone are worthy.

You alone are good and your mercy is forever sure, enduring from age to age.

Sometimes we take your mercy for granted, loving God.

Sometimes we assume your forgiveness without confessing our sinfulness.

Forgive us for taking your grace for granted.

Help us to lift our praises to you and to live alleluias every day. (silent prayer)

CURRENT SERMON SERIES

Oct. 5-26: Mere Christianity

C.S. Lewis (1898-1963) was a British writer, literary scholar, and theologian. He is best known for writing the Chronicles of Narnia. Though baptized as an infant, Lewis became an atheist at 15 years old because he was angry at God, both for not existing and for creating such a terrible world. He became a Christian “kicking, struggling, and resentful” at 33 years old, influenced by friends like J.R.R. Tolkien and various writings. Mere Christianity is Lewis’ compelling apologetic for Christianity. For Lewis, Christianity is not easy or simple; rather, it is demanding and risky. In this sermon series, Rev. Dr. Rodger Nishioka will explore Lewis’ arguments for a Christian faith that is a radical reordering of our lives.
